Around the Square

A number of people, a number of times, have said that it's quite impossible to win an argument with Noren Eaton, city councilman who also is one of Sierra Madre's leading attorneys. But the time finally has come when these people can be proved wrong.

Almost anybody can win an argument with Lawyer Eaton as of now. He has laryngitis. No voice at all.

For those who feel that local Civil Defense news has hit a new low, here's a featured bit to gladden the heart. Seven 16-year-old youths walked into City Hall recently to volunteer their services for the Auxiliary Fire Department in Civil Defense. To be trained by Fireman Joe Grippi, they are George Freeman, Alvin Jacobsen, Clark Marshall, Richard Phillips, Gary Rhodus, Myron Smith, Jr., and Don Stocker. Biggest moment in their "induction" was the finger-printing. Made them glad to be of clear conscience!

Virginia Timmons walked by the other day with her right arm in a sling. Wife of Colin W. Timmons, she has been busy with interior decorating since fire damaged their home several weeks ago. Got so busy studying the new walls the other day that she tripped over some bad frames lying on a bedroom floor. But in describing the accident, she didn't seem to mind a bit.

Women just naturally love interior decorating—no matter what the hazards!

Hold World Day of Prayer Tomorrow

The World Day of Prayer, sponsored by the Council of Church Women, will be observed in Sierra Madre with a one hour service, beginning at 11 a.m. tomorrow, Feb. 20, at the Congregational Church.

Dr. Halford Luccock of Yale Divinity School will attend. Services will be conducted by Mrs. Robert B. H. Bell, with Mrs. Carl Smith in charge of music. Mrs. Jean Woolley will organize the ushers.

The local event marks the fourth consecutive year that this annual day of prayer has been observed here. Not only is it a national day of prayer, but persons in 117 countries throughout the world engaged in prayer during the event last year.

In this year's theme, "Walk as Children of Light," it is anticipated that 17,000 communities in the United States and 114 countries around the world will be represented in prayer services held within a 24-hour period.

All persons, regardless of faiths, are invited to attend the Sierra Madre services in which five local churches will be represented.

McComb Gives Talk Here As Honor Guest

Dr. Stuart McComb, superintendent of Pasadena Schools, and Arman Sarafian, assistant curriculum coordinator for the Pasadena high school district, were guests of honor at the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday, Feb. 17.

Among those who attended were Charles Skutt, superintendent of Sierra Madre City School; Philip Mitchell, recreation director; Severin Sorenson, chairman of the Educational Research Committee; Mrs. Doris Hartman, vice chairman of ERC, seven other ERC members, Kiwanian President Knox Hagar, along with fellow Kiwanians and guests.

In addressing the group, McComb's remarks were a brief summary of his talk Feb. 4 when he appeared before 200 parents and residents of the vicinity assembled at Eugene Field School to hear him describe the situation pertaining to the forthcoming Pasadena school bond election, Mar. 4.

THERE WILL BE MORE THAN BEAUTIFUL BLOOMS at the Wistaria Festival when these Sierra Madre girls, chosen from among 20 contestants, arrive on the scene today for the season's official opening to the public of the world's most celebrated vine. They are Pat Murphy, Barbara Wilson, Phyllis Desocke, Jane Lange and Penny Bell. The great Wistaria Vine, which has attracted people from 48 states as well as celebrated visitors from all over the world, will begin its 1953 "Festival" in Sierra Madre with a Press Party from 5 to 7 p.m. this evening. Although only one of the girls can be chosen Queen, the other four will remain to lend their grace and beauty as hostesses at the festivities. The vine, first opened to the public in 1916 to gain donations for the Red Cross, is being rushed this year by an unusually long period of warm weather, but gives budding promise to be as beautiful as ever.

Vine Festival Competition Names Five For Final Test

ONE GIRL WILL BE QUEEN

The five finalists for the title of Wistaria Queen of 1953 were chosen last Sunday from a score of Sierra Madre girls. The five beauties are Penny Bell of 419 E. Highland, Phyllis Desocke of 891 E. Grandview, Jane Lange of 529 W. Laurel, Pat Murphy of 3820 Hampton road, and Barbara Wilson, who lives at 168 La Sierra, Arcadia.

The girls will act as hostesses at the annual press party today at the Wistaria Gardens, to be held from 5 to 7 p.m. Vine officials and the Sierra Madre News, who is co-host for the press party, announced that over 350 invitations to the affair were sent to editors and reporters in Southern California.

Leading contestants for the title of Wistaria Queen were Gretchen Myers, 14; Barbara Duffy, 15; Penny Bell, 15; Janet Peterson, 15; Ellen Baurelle, 15; Susie Luckenbill, 17; Connie Perkins, 17; Diane Fritz, 15; Jane Lange, 15; Marian Oakley, 17; Pat Murphy, 17; Phyllis Desocke, 21; Barbara Wilson, 16; Frankie Shultz, 16; Nancy Jo Luther, 15; Calole Lorimer, 17, and Marianne Sempler, 16.

The Queen will be announced Thursday, Feb. 26. The official crowning of the Queen will take place on the Jack Owen television show, KECA-TV, 6:15 to 6:45 p.m., Monday, Mar. 2. Singing star Jack Owens and his daughter, Mary Ann, will present the new Queen with a gold loving cup.

Fred Hawkins Released From St. Luke's Hospital

Fred Hawkins, plant superintendent for the News, underwent surgery at St. Luke's Hospital on his birthday, Feb. 11, and was released Feb. 14, Valentine's Day.

Hawkins will have been with the News four years in June. He came to this country from his home in Birmingham, England, in February, 1949.

LIONS DUE FOR SURPRISE

The Sierra Madre Lions Club is planning a surprise party for its meeting tonight, beginning at 7:15 o'clock at the Woman's Clubhouse. Those in charge of the program will be Frank Barbour and Ralph "Pappy" Welch.

Paper Drive Scheduled For Pick-Up Route

The Sierra Madre Scrap and Paper Drive, to raise further funds for the proposed community swimming pool, is being waged in earnest. More than one ton of paper has been received at the lot east of the Woman's Clubhouse, from voluntary contributions, and a pick-up service has been scheduled for Sierra Madre and Coronet Homes.

All persons in Coronet Homes who have magazines, newspapers, or scrap metal they would like to be rid of are asked to leave such material on their curbs by 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Feb. 21. Pick-ups will be made from that time, throughout the morning and early afternoon.

The schedule for the entire vicinity appears next week.

Contract to Remedy Littered Streets Here

Ordinance Exists to Back Up Move Against 'Tobacco Roads'

The once-described "Tobacco Road" appearance of Sierra Madre's streets, caused by lingering garbage piles and rubbish heaps, will become a thing of the past when the plan to be launched March 10, after long study by City Administrator R. Merritt Baker backed by City Council, receives cooperation from Sierra Madre tenants and property owners.

Such is the opinion of the city administrator, city councilmen and Mayor Henry F. Korsmeier after working over last minute details of Sierra Madre's new hope for cleanliness at a special City Council meeting last Monday evening that was called to give exclusive attention to the awarding of a new five-year contract for the collection of city garbage, combustible rubbish, to John Avedesian.

Under the new schedule, calendars recently issued and marked for individual information concerning collection dates of combustible refuse should be disregarded after Mar. 10. Printed instructions to replace them will be sent to residents in the near future.

Advantages of the new system are centered about the fact that rubbish will be hauled away once a week, provided it is placed in suitable containers. If it is not placed in proper containers the city may refer to ordinance 460, passed Nov. 26, 1946, which requires such containers by law, through which violators can be fined $300 or jailed for three months.

New Officers Elected By Nursery Group

New officers of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association were elected at a joint meeting of the 1952 and 1953 Boards of Trustees, Tuesday, Feb. 17, and were presented at the Annual Meeting of the Association immediately afterward.

MRS. GERALD MARUGG

The officers are: President, Mrs. Gerald Marugg, Jr.; vice-president, Mrs. Paul Sheldon; recording secretary, Mrs. George Barnett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Johnson; treasurer, Enrique Alonso. Frank DeVirgilio, outgoing Facilities Chairman, presented a preview of the forthcoming film of Nursery School Activities, which he has compiled during the last year. In addition to pictures of the Annual Family Picnic in June, the Christmas Dance, and the children's activities at Nursery, he has included many shots of early Nursery School events to make a fairly complete pictorial history of the Nursery School since its beginning.

The Association's February Fathers' Work Day will be held Sunday, Feb. 22, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

P-TA Founders' Day to Honor Mrs. Eakman

One of the highlights of the Sierra Madre P-TA Founders Day luncheon at City School today will be the naming of Florence Eakman to a Life Membership in the National Parent-Teachers Association. This honorary membership given in Sierra Madre once a year also is awarded throughout the state and nationwide to persons who have contributed much to the welfare of children. Mrs. Eakman, wife of Francis Eakman, 194 Mariposa, long has been recognized as a successful writer of children's plays, poetry, and short stories. The award of every Life

'Dollar Day' Bargains Coming

"Dollar Day" is right around the corner! Actually the great "Buy-It-for-a-Buck" bargain period will last three days, beginning next Thursday, Feb. 26. What's more, not everything will sell for one dollar, but even those products in the nylon-to-lawnmower class will be knocked down in price to such an extent that customers will find them hard to resist.

Many Sierra Madre merchants have been preparing for this three-day sale for several months, having bolstered their stocks from warehouses throughout the nation. They anticipate one of the greatest sales events in Sierra Madre's history.

Now that the bank and stores are open Friday evenings, the Feb. 26 to 28 period promises a real shopping spree.

THE OL' SWIMMIN' HOLE THAT POETS ONCE WROTE ABOUT is a thing of the past so far as modern swimming pool architecture is concerned. William Taylor, of the Artistic Swimming Pool Company in Pasadena, in submitting this sketch for Sierra Madre's proposed community swimming pool at City Park, has included dressing rooms, walkways, off-street parking at the main entrance on Mariposa, and landscaping to the north. In so doing he was following suggestions by members of two organizations, the Sierra Madre Swimming Pool Association and the Sierra Madre Recreation Commission, both of which approved these plans on a tentative basis. In the meantime, the "Country Fair" proposed for Sierra Madre in June may be promoted, not by the Swimming Pool Association, but by Lions, Kiwanis and VFW, who plan to raise funds for the pool with the help of other civic organizations.

Southland Member Enlistment

Presbyterian churches throughout the Southland have joined in an effort to add 17,000 new members to the church rolls in 1953, the first step in a 10-year program in which the denomination seeks to double its membership in Southern California.

Cooperating with this joint effort Trinity Presbyterian Church, of which the pastor is Rev. Donald H. Ostrander, sent some of its members last week to a course in the Pasadena Presbyterian Church in the training of laymen in the technique of visitation and enlistment.

Attending from the local church were Mrs. Jean Woolley, chairman of the Trinity Church's evangelism committee, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt J. Thompson and Mrs. Gertrude Embree.

These people, in turn, will meet Sunday afternoon with other laymen of the local church to brief them on visitation methods in preparation for calling on prospective members. The Presbytery of Los Angeles recommends, according to Rev. Ostrander, that these calls be concentrated in an intensive four-day campaign.

Locally, the initial calls will be made Sunday night and at various other times during the Lenten season.

Culmination of the campaign for new members in this area will be in the induction of young people into the church on Palm Sunday and with the reception of new adult members in services at 7:30 p.m. on Maunday Thursday, April 2.

FATHER SMITH HAS
ASSISTANT FOR LENT

Rev. Everett Bosshard of Santa Barbara will be in Sierra Madre during the Lenten season to assist Rev. Harley Gibbs Smith, rector of the Church of Ascension, in preaching and in conducting services.

Special services announced by Father Smith are as follows: Stations of the Cross, Wednesdays at 9 a.m. throughout Lent; Benediction and Stations of the Cross Fridays at 8 p.m., also throughout Lent.

Father Smith has chosen the

EARL TOLER JOINS
STAFF OF ROSE
HILLS MEMORIAL

Earl C. Toler, 325 Sturtevant drive, has joined the staff of Rose Hills Memorial Park as a pre-need memorial counselor, it was announced this week by John D. Gregg, Rose Hills president.

A native son, having been born in Los Angeles, where he also attended school, Toler has lived in Sierra Madre since 1945. He is a World War II veteran, having served more than three years as a staff sergeant with the 40th Infantry Division.

Those who saw the 1953 Tournament of Roses Parade last month will remember Toler, who is six-foot-three, as the tall figure in the role of "Ivan Skavinsky Skavar" aboard Sierra Madre's float, "Abdul A-bul-bul Amir."

Toler and his wife, Roberta, are the parents of three children, Buck, 5; Jeff, 3; and Susan Ann, 1. The family attends Bethany Church.

theme, "Following in the Footsteps," to be developed in sermons to be delivered prior to and on Easter Sunday.

Lutherans Announce
Lenten Devotional

The second Midweek Lenten Devotional will be conducted on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, by Rev. A. Hesse, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church. The theme of the service will be, "Christ Gave His Immaculate Body for Me," the second in a series on the subject, "Christ Loved Me and Gave Himself for Me."

The Adult Night School of Religion will follow this service at 8:45 p.m. The subject to be considered will be, "Holy Baptism—Has It Any Values for You and for Your Child?"

Smith Stresses
Three Goals
For Lent

Rev. Carl C. Smith, in announcing the schedule of pre-Easter services for the Congregational Church, has placed emphasis on three goals for the church membership relative to the Lenten season.

The goals outlined by Rev. Smith for his congregation's consideration are: To deepen spiritual life and understanding of church fellowship in private devotions as well as in public worship; to strengthen in the young people their understanding of the basic facts and tenets of the faith and to inspire them towards personal commitments of themselves to God; and, to make significant sacrifice during the Lenten season towards a sacrificial

Easter offering for the ongoing work of the church.

Starting with Ash Wednesday communion services last night in the Congregational Church, services will be held at 8 p.m. every Wednesday during Lent.

A series of classes for seventh to tenth grade school children will be conducted by the pastor at 4 p.m. every Thursday afternoon, beginning today and continuing through Easter week.

Sunday worship services will be held at the usual hour of 11 o'clock and Rev. Smith will develop a Lenten theme in his sermons.

Fuller Professor
Interim Preacher
At Bethany Church

Dr. George Ladd, professor of New Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, will serve as interim pulpit supply at Bethany Church, it has been announced. Dr. Ladd will conduct the Sunday morning and evening services with the exception of those times when a pulpit candidate is guest.

The Wednesday night prayer meetings and other special services will be conducted by Len Pallin of Sierra Madre, a Fuller student, who has been assisting the pastor for some time.

Rev. Don B. Rood, former pastor, conducted his last service in the church Sunday morning for an over-flow congregation. Rev. Rood is on a week's vacation now and will leave Monday for his new pastorate in Everett, Wash.

Rev. Rood and his family were guests of honor at a banquet given by young people of the church Sunday afternoon and at a reception attended by more than 200 following evening services in the church.

The pastor is baptized 15 persons Sunday night in the last of such services performed by him locally.

Capt. Shippey Wins Coveted Flying Honors

One of Sierra Madre's heroes-in-service announced in a letter to his home here the winning of the second highest flying honors a pilot in the Air Forces can attain.

Capt. John J. Shippey, 299 Toyon road, son of Lee Shippey, writer of Los Angeles Times fame, notified his parents he has been awarded the coveted "Senior" pilot wings of the Air Forces, denoting seven years as a pilot and more than 2000 hours of flying time.

In service since the beginning of World War II, Shippey has seen action on a round-the-world basis, flying in Turkey, Africa, England, France, Greece and Germany, plus a complete tour of action in the Far East.

He was a full participant in the famed Berlin air-lift, doing his share to place a crimp in the Kremlin's blockade plans.

Now flying in Japan, Captain Shippey until recently was one of those responsible for the tremendous job of flying our Korean wounded back to U. S. hospitals. He is presently performing duty as a pilot in a target training squadron, helping younger pilots learn the techniques of their jobs that may save their lives.

Shippey's tour of duty in the East is due to expire in another 13 months and will mark an unbroken three years of far-eastern duty.

Teachers' Institute Gives City School Students a Holiday

Tomorrow is a holiday for students at City School, although not for the teachers who will be attending the Teachers' All Day Institute at Cloverly School in Temple City, according to Miss Betty Newton, vice-principal.

The morning program for the Teachers' Institute will consist of grade-level meetings, which will include talks by Mrs. Philip D. Quinlan, third grade teacher, and Mrs. Matilda B. Laughlin, second and third grade teacher, both from City School.

Also among those who will speak from City School is Philip Mitchell, sixth grade teacher, who will tell how to organize playground activities for active participation.

A prominent guest speaker will highlight the afternoon schedule.

Although Washington's Birthday is Sunday, Feb. 22, Monday also will be a holiday for children of City School and St. Rita School. Students at the Ascension Parish School will attend school as usual Monday because they were given an extra holiday Friday following Lincoln's Birthday, Thursday, Feb. 12.

Postmaster Here Reports January Total

Postal receipts for Sierra Madre in the month of January, reported by Postmaster Eddie Robertson, were $6,673.30 as compared to $7,358.31 in the same month last year.

These figures, in spite of the variance, represent a 10% increase in first class mail handled through the Post Office here. The difference lies within the amounts of third class mail, which were decreased last month by comparison to January, 1952, totals.

Total cancellations last month were in the total amount of $125,161. Last year at the end of January they amounted to the monthly total of $194,484.

FIRE FLAMES

Week after week passes by and all we can talk about in this column is fire prevention. There are so many nice gossip matters to mention in regards to family affairs and general conditions that perhaps if some of them were mentioned more people would read about fire. No matter if others do not pay much attention to the necessity of staying on the job when it comes to preventing fire, they are nevertheless fire conscious without realizing it, and the men of the fire department keep on plugging away.

It would be a big surprise to some to learn that there are many people moving into Sierra Madre who came from a part of the country where fire permits are not even heard of. They get a fire once in awhile out in the open, and they let it burn. We can't do that here. When it comes to trying to explain this condition, we find it difficult. Some are inclined to believe that you are being just a little officious with some un-called for suggestions. This is not the case. Fire prevention is for the safety—not the annoyance—of the individual.

A program of fire drill is being formed for this evening. This will mean that at 7:30 sharp, a signal will sound at the fire station and the fire trucks will be brought into use, assimilating a fire. Each man will be given an opportunity to practice and ask questions about anything he is not well acquainted with.

Such important operations as connecting hose, selecting nozzles, donning masks, raising ladders, operating the pumps, figuring pressures and a hundred and one other matters concerning fire fighting must be known by some member at a fire.

As a volunteer fireman, it is necessary that each man be familiar with all operations. Each feels his responsibility as a fire fighter and though there may be some clowning or real fun, none of these men underestimate the importance of serious drills.

New work uniforms that the city has supplied the men, will not only be of better appearance than the former, but now at drills onlookers will know a fire department is at work. If they have some doubt, they will see "Sierra Madre Fire Dept." on the backs of the boys.

ROGER WOOD TO CALIFORNIA BAR

Roger Hoffman Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Wood, 38 E. Grandview, was sworn in last week as a member of the California State Bar Association at ceremonies in the Supreme Court in San Francisco.

Mr. Wood, a Sierra Madrean for many years, studied law for one year at London University in England and was graduated from Stanford law school in June. Prior to that he had attended Pasadena City College and Stanford University.

He is now serving as a deputy attorney for the state legislative council in Sacramento.

Lalone and Democrats Celebrate "Birthday"

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lalone celebrated Lalone's birthday last Monday night by attending the meeting of the Sierra Madre Democratic Club. Officially, the occasion also was a "birthday" for the club inasmuch as it received its charter that day.

Refreshments were served, and Richard Richards, chairman of the County Committee, presented the charter in a brief speech in which he said it was the duty of Democrats to give loyal support to the Eisenhower administration except in cases which they believed were not in the national interest.

It pays to advertise in the News.

"LOOKIE, LOOKIE, HERE COMES COOKIE" might be a good title for the above, except that there are a good many cookies coming the way of Sierra Madres these days as a result of the Girl Scout "Cookie Campaign" which is scheduled to last until Feb. 21 so far as home orders are concerned. The Mariners will take street orders during the Friday evening shopping hours tomorrow and Feb. 27. In the meantime, neither of the girls in this picture are nicknamed "Cookie," either, but they're cute enough not to need it. Their real names are Barbara Winslow and Daryl Lee Pangborn.

Teen Talk.

By Gretchen Conzelmann, CUser 5-0395

Congratulations are in order for a number of young Sierra Madre people and to start the list are the five Princesses chosen last Sunday to reign over the Wistaria Vine. Penny Bell, Pat Murphy, Jane Lange, Barbara Wilson and Phyllis Besocke will undoubtedly make up one of the loveliest courts in the history of the vine.

Next in line to receive our congratulations is Margie Farrow of 264 N. Baldwin avenue, who was recently elected president of the Pasadena Convocation of Young Episcopal Churchmen. The Pasadena Convocation covers a large area and many communities outside of Pasadena. Also, Margie and Marguerite Moore were tapped for Spartans last month at Pasadena City College. Spartans is a girls' organization which honors women students who have made outstanding contributions to their school.

And Ronnie Boorman of Muir College who was tapped for the Order of Distinguished Service, deserves the many heartfelt congratulations he received at being chosen as one of Muir's outstanding students in every way.

Nancy Rogers, Jane Lange and Nina Scherer, with other friends from Pasadena, are planning an exciting trip across the border during Easter vacation. They are going to Mexico and will certainly have a wonderful time soaking up sun and sightseeing.

Bruce Archibald, Johnny McCort and Pat Kennedy enjoyed a party given at the home of Johnny Coats in South Pasadena for members of Zama (a fraternal organization at PCC) last Saturday night.

Dave McDonald is recovering from a fractured collarbone he received while skiing a few weeks back with Don Parker and Dick Black. The patient is reported doing well and is able to attend school.

Elva Pickett was a busy gal last Sunday when she attended many of the rushing teas given by the girls' clubs at PCC. Representing their clubs by serving at the various teas were Molly O'Donnell, Betty Kreuscher, Ruth Gerke, Ann Carlson, Flo Pascoe and Nancy Moffat of Sierra Madre.

Wednesday night, Feb. 11, Pasadena City College and Muir sponsored an all-city dance at the Pasadena Athletic Club for students from both schools. Molly O'Donnell, Betty Kreuscher and Ted Martin attended and enjoyed this affair very much.

Before I wind this up, how's about a kind thought for Leonard Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barrett of 312 W. Montecito, who as a seaman in the U.S. Navy is fighting it out for Uncle Sam somewhere in the Far East. And Ray Rickman, who is receiving his initial training at San Diego's Naval Training Station and, incidentally, likes it. Good luck, Sailors!

Linda Haithcock Is Graduated Cum Laude

Linda Lee Haithcock, former resident of Sierra Madre, was graduated cum laude from Pomona College at mid-year commencement exercises last Thursday, Feb. 12.

Miss Haithcock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Arnold, who now reside at 2003 Enfield road, Austin, Texas. She was graduated from University High School in Los Angeles in 1949. She plans to begin work soon in biological research in the primate laboratory at the University of Texas in Austin.

Ray McCowan Featured In Company Magazine

Sierra Madren Ray Bland McCowan, 61 E. Orange Grove, is featured in an illustrated article appearing in the current issue of "Fluor-o-Scope," employee publication of the Fluor Corporation, Ltd., Los Angeles.

Born in Neilhart, Mont., where a silver mine—first in the state and source of the town's livelihood—was discovered by his father, McCowan bears a reminder of his early days, for his middle name is that of the famous "Silver Senator."

Joining Fluor in 1942 as chief accountant, McCowan switched to personnel work six years later. He is now personnel supervisor for the engineering, manufacturing and construction concern. He and his wife, Lillian, have one son, Bill, who is in medical school. The Sierra Madren's hobby is gardening. He spends many leisure hours in landscaping, and the McCowan garden blooms throughout the year.

Captain, Mrs. Rich Return to Alabama

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Rich, 618 W. Highland, and their sons, Ted, Tom, Bob and Brad, left Monday for Magnolia Springs, Ala., where they will make their home.

Mrs. Rich and the boys lived in Sierra Madre for eight months while Capt. Rich served with the Army in Korea.

ELSA SEIFERT LOVELY BRIDE IN PALE BLUE; ON DESERT HONEYMOON

On their honeymoon in the desert sunshine at Palm Springs this week are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Antony Beckwith whose wedding took place Sunday afternoon in the Sierra Madre Congregational Church. The bride, the former Elsa Jeanne Seifert, and her new husband will be at home to their many friends in an apartment at 11425 S. Figueroa, Los Angeles, after next weekend.

For her wedding in the candlelit, flower-filled church, the attractive bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Seifert, wore a waltz-length gown of ice-blue nylon tulle over taffeta with matching elbow length tulle mitts, a Juliet cap and waist-length veil. Her cascade bouquet was of white carnations and lily-of-the-valley with satin streamers.

Has Five Attendants

Some of Sierra Madre's prettiest young women were in the wedding party. Miss Joyce Lange, as maid of honor, wore a gown of Wedgwood blue silk organza and tulle in ballet length, and a headpiece of braided organza. The pink roses in her bouquet were fashioned in a spray and tied with pink satin.

Identical strapless gowns of lilac silk organza with draped Grecian bodices and full skirts over orchid taffeta, matching stoles and braided headresses were worn by the three bridesmaids, Miss Diane Ferris of Oakland, formerly of Sierra Madre, Miss Maryanne Haskins and Miss Diane K. Armstrong, both of this city. They carried sprays of pink carnations.

Niece Is Flower Girl

Sharing in the admiration of the approximately 350 wedding guests was the five-year-old flower girl, Catherine Elin Roberts, niece of the bride. Dressed in crisp shell-pink organza, the little girl strewed rose petals from a shallow, ribbon-trimmed basket. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, Altadena.

Serving Mr. Beckwith as best man was H. F. Charles of Los

William F. Malmbergs Leave For San Jose

All of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Malmberg and their daughter, Tina, are sorry to hear that they will be leaving for San Jose March 1. Mr. Malmberg's business is taking his family to the northern city.

Mrs. Malmberg's mother and sister, Mrs. Karen Lof and Mrs. Margaretha Larsson, have been visiting in California since last Christmas from Stockholm, Sweden. Since they had not planned on returning to Sweden until the last of March, they will make the move to San Jose with the Malmbergs.

B. Leslie Baxters Visit Apple Valley

Mr. and Mrs. B. Leslie Baxter of 1095 Hastings Ranch drive have recently returned from a five-day sojourn at Apple Valley. According to Mrs. Baxter, "the weather was marvelous and the people very friendly."

Afterwards, to make up to five-year-old Pam and three-year-old Patty for being left at home during the desert holiday, the Baxters took the children to Big Bear Lake to frolic in the snow.

The Girl Scouts gave a play recently for the purpose of earning one of their badges. The plot of the play was woven around the activities of the children from kindergarten through the sixth grade of the Mountain View School. Those taking part in the production were Meredith Mitchell and Janet Double, for the kindergarten; Susan Franklin and Rosalie, the first grade; Charlene Pearcey and Sandra Swanson, second grade; Carol Siebert and Janet Coplen, third grade; Berneta Benson and Rozella Bogge, fourth grade; Anita Cockerham and Sandra Casso, fifth grade; Bonnie Buckle and Lynda Reeve, sixth grade; Doris Cottam, principal; and Kathleen Alfredo, using a different name for each grade, portrayed the teacher.

Roller skating has become very popular among the students at Eugene Fields School. Mr. Haworth has provided a special place for the skaters. You can bet all the children are happy.

Michael Danchik of 1155 Tropical avenue has been seen all over the area lately, promoting the donations to the Mopette's project, involving a Sunbeam Fryer and Cooker.

RAY LINDMAN MADE LAW FIRM MEMBER

Mr. Ray Lindman, 3770 Hampton road, recently received the outstanding honor of being made a member of the law firm of O'Melveny and Myers, one of the largest legal companies in Los Angeles.

As an expert on city government and a specialist in municipal bonds, Mr. Lindman is frequently consulted by neighboring communities. At present the City of Sierra Madre is receiving his assistance in their problem of off-street parking.

A graduate of Stanford University in the class of '31, Mr. Lindman was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary scholastic society. His law studies were completed at Harvard Law School where he graduated cum laude.

Mr. Lindman has not overlooked a businessman's need for hobbies. He is a specialist in the art of cooking. As an outstanding member of the "Chef of the West," sponsored by Sunset Magazine, he wears the complete cooking outfit presented, in the various pieces, as awards of merit for his recipes. A weather station in the Lindman's backyard is another of Mr. Lindman's hobbies—a complete unit for measuring rain and recording other weather conditions.

Local Workers Ready For Red Cross Drive

The workers for the Red Cross drive, scheduled to start March 1, are making last minute arrangements for the success of their undertaking.

Mrs. Gram's section leaders are Mrs. Clifford W. Hill, Mrs. Mackey J. Thompson, Mrs. Price T. Watson, Mrs. R. A. Croft and Mrs. Rocky Scherer.

Mrs. Souther's section leaders are Mrs. Chase Wickersham, Jr., Mrs. Fred Klauer, Jr., Mrs. Gleason Payne and Mrs. William Caldwell.

It is the earnest hope of all the workers for this drive, that each person in the area will give something, no matter how small the donation might be.

Survey Group Holds Evening Discussion

The third and last in a series of discussions on the Pasadena School Survey was held Tuesday, Feb. 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Osborn, 3760 Shadow Grove road.

John B. Atkinson presented a short paper on the subject of curriculum as discussed in the school survey and the various members of the group followed with questions relative to curriculum in the elementary system. Ray Haworth, principal of Field School, answered these questions with a description of the methods of teaching now used in the school room.

The ladies enjoyed the fashions of many outstanding designers, among them those of Grace Martin. The luncheon was given by the junior organization of which Mrs. Hauner is a member.

Area Owners Will Petition Against Industrial Rezoning

By KAY GATES

As the paper goes to print, news is received that the date of Mar. 2, 3:00 p.m., at Pasadena City Hall, has been set for the meeting of the Planning Commission at which the petition for the zone change will be acted upon.

Also, a meeting has been called for all residents of the Ranch and of the Sierra Madre Villa district at the Field School cafeteria Feb. 25, at 8:00 p.m.

Members from five property owners organizations of this area met at the Robert Meserve's home, 3760 Hampton road, last week, to discuss a petition for rezoning for industrial use property adjacent to Hastings Ranch.

Mr. Thornton McCarthy of Mayfair drive gave a short resume of the luncheon meeting he had attended recently at the Huntington Hotel where Mr. Phillip S. Fogg, president of Consolidated Engineering Corp., presented his plans of developing the property for which he is filing a rezoning petition. The section of approximately 22 acres is bounded on the east by Halstead street, on the south by Foothill boulevard, on the west by Sierra Madre Villa, and on the north by the new Rosemead Extension. The great majority of this property is now zoned as R-2 for multiple dwellings.

The meeting continued with Mr. Meserve, president of Hastings Ranch Property Owners Organization, discussing how such a change would affect the 6000 residents of the neighboring area. He explained that a city planning commission lays out zones to protect the R-1 zone, residential property, by surrounding it with an R-2 zone. This acts as a buffer between the R-1 zone and that used for industrial and commercial purposes. "Rezoning of this property would completely eliminate that buffer zone," Mr. Meserve pointed out. He went on further to explain that a change in zoning of property is a permanent one so this property would always be for industrial use.

Other members of the group brought up further objections of such a change. It was mentioned that although the present owner's intentions may be of the best in planning the design and use of these buildings, conditions can change in future years which would cause the property to fall in others' hands for other uses, and that once a change is made residents have no say in the matter of what industries use the property nor how the grounds are maintained. Also, the group discussed the possibility of subsequent requests in the near future for rezoning of the remaining property on Sierra Madre Villa on north to Sierra Madre boulevard and further into other areas.

Upper Ranch Group Ask For No Rezoning

A call to the people of Pasadena and Sierra Madre was issued this week by residents of Upper Hastings Ranch to join with them in petitioning the Pasadena Planning Commission to reject the plan of subdivision to rezone to Class 2 the land immediately west of Coronet and north of Sierra Madre boulevard.

Terming the land in question one of the few remaining choice areas available for Class 1 development in Pasadena, spokesmen for the group said they will have a petition available for signatures by this weekend in an effort to preserve the present R-1 Class 1 zoning of the property. They also called attention to the fact that this parcel of land immediately west of Coronet is adjacent to land that is going to be developed by Los Angeles County into a golf course and park area.

An invitation to those who wish to add their names to the petition was issued by the group. Information on the petition may be had by telephoning either Charles Smith, CU. 5-2041; Wayne Blackburn, CU. 5-2040; or Fred Edmunds, CU. 5-2782.

STOP THE ENCROACHMENT OF INDUSTRY INTO OUR RESIDENTIAL AREA

STOP INSTRUMENT PARK!

We oppose the petition of Consolidated Engineering Corp. seeking the rezoning for industrial use of the property bounded on the east by Halstead Street, on the south by Foothill Boulevard on the west by Sierra Madre Villa and on the north by Rosemead Extension because:

1. It would destroy the basic zoning plan formed by the Pasadena Planning Commission when Hastings Ranch was subdivided.
2. Eliminates the buffer zone between commercial property fronting on Foothill Boulevard and the R-1, or single family residential areas.
3. Opens the door for zone changes on adjoining property and thereby promotes the growth of industry in a high class residential area.
4. Eliminates future control of the use of this property. As this petition requests a CHANGE OF ZONE, future owners and occupants can use the property for any type of light industry.
5. Further industrialization of area would create nuisance factors of increased traffic, noise, and interference with adjoining schools, parks and recreational areas.

Come to the Mass Protest Meeting at Eugene Field School Auditorium, 8:00 P. M. Wednesday, February 25, 1953.

Rezoning petition will be heard Monday, March 2, 1953, 3 P. M. at City Council Chambers at Pasadena City Hall.

Sierra Madrean's Work Ends as Aide To GAR Commanders for Past 18 Years

By VERA LUMBARD

To Mrs. Margaret S. Thompson, 132 S. Hermosa, the death last month of the West's last Union Army veteran, was a double loss.

When she said a graveside farewell to a venerable old comrade, W. A. Magee of Van Nuys, age 106, commander and sole remaining member of California's famous Stanton Post No. 55, Grand Army of the Republic, she knew her work was done as special aide to that post.

The post now ceases to exist as does Mrs. Thompson's unique office, an appointive one created for her in 1934 and renewed annually by the commanders for the past 18 years.

A quiet ceremony Feb. 15 in Patriotic Hall, Los Angeles, marked the demise of Stanton Post and, with it, the GAR. It now remains only for Mrs. Thompson to see to the appropriate distribution to museums and other repositories for such mementoes, of the approximately $4000 worth of paintings and equipment belonging to the post. The post's Bible, used since 1883, and the American flag, furled here for the last time, have been sent to Washington, D.C.

Daughter and widow of Civil War veterans, Mrs. Thompson expended more than ordinary interest in the devoted discharge of her duties which are outlined in a handsomely hand decorated and lettered certificate presented to her. Mrs. Thompson had charge of locker and flags, preparing the room for meetings, arranging post funerals, making sick and shut-in calls and various other special duties designated by the current commander.

According to the wording of her appointment certificate Mrs. Thompson was the only aide to a post of the GAR.

Newspaper pictures of the late Magee, soon to be placed in what may be the last of the voluminous scrapbooks Mrs. Thompson has filled through the years, show the old gentleman wearing a blouse which was Mrs. Thompson's gift to him, decorated with gold dress uniform buttons which had been her husband's. He also wears an elaborate badge, fashioned by Mrs. Thompson of ribbon, a zircon diamond and seed pearls. This was one of many such badges Mrs. Thompson made for each veteran as he reached the age of 100 years.

Stanton post, of the department of California and Nevada, at one time was the second largest in the country with a membership from every state in the union. Mrs. Thompson attributes this partly to the fact that the gold rush lured many to California.

MRS. MARGARET THOMPSON... was GAR Aide

At the time she assumed her duties there were 120 veterans still on the roster.

Mrs. Thompson, at 75 years of age, has no intention of having idle hands or flagging interests now this phase of her work is done. She expects soon to join the Congregational Church here and will resume activities in the Order of Eastern Star.

She makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Harvey M. Hickok. They are daughters of Henry Clinton Stevens who died 73 years ago when Mrs. Thompson was two. Her husband, also a Civil War veteran, Andrew Jackson Thompson, was 90 when he died in 1932 in Los Angeles.

The death of Mrs. Thompson's last commander reduces to two the country's Union Army veterans. They are James A. Hard, 111, of Rochester, N. Y., and Albert Woolson, 105, of Duluth, Minn.

YOUNG GOP NAME DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION

The Sierra Madre Young Republicans Club will send at least six delegates to the California State Young G.O.P. annual convention Feb. 27 and 28 and March 1 in Long Beach.

The delegates, named by William M. Hawkins, president, at a recent meeting, are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stevens, James Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Mac A. Cason.

The next regular meeting of the club will be a pot luck supper March 9.

LEGION AUXILIARY IN 28TH BIRTHDAY

Sierra Madre American Legion Auxiliary will honor all their past-presidents and charter members on the occasion of their 28th birthday anniversary, Thursday evening, Feb. 26, at the home of Mrs. Ora Olsen, 123 E. Sierra Madre boulevard, at 8 o'clock.

The district president, Mrs. Vera Daugherty of San Gabriel, will make her official visit to the unit at this time. All past-presidents and charter members of the community are cordially invited to attend this anniversary occasion.

J. A. Brandt to Attend Women's Press Meeting

Joseph A. Brandt, dean of UCLA Graduate Division, will head the three-speaker program and newspaper publishers of this area will be guests at a dinner-meeting to be held by San Gabriel Valley Women's Press Club Thursday, Feb. 26, at Hunter's Inn, Temple City. Sierra Madrean Lorne Pratt, secretary-manager of San Gabriel Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the dinner, will give a short talk on "Chamber of Commerce Public Relations."

Highway Patrolmen Increase Enforcement

California Highway Patrolmen halted about one out of every six drivers last year as the patrol's enforcement activities reached an all-time high.

A total of 681,121 citations and written warnings were handed out, with citations alone running 439,324, a 21 per cent increase over 1951.

Preliminary analysis of enforcement figures indicates that speeding, the state's No. 1 traffic killer, accounted for one-third of all arrests.

Following his announced all-out drive against illicit use of narcotics, Sheriff E. W. Biscailuz today stated that he intends to utilize every man who has had narcotic enforcement training to combat the increased traffic in narcotic drugs.

Scanning the Sportscene

With BOB BROGGER

The Pasadena Nazarene College Crusaders are probably the best basketball team in the nation. Some, of course, do put Seaton Hall and Rio Grande on top of the Crusaders. But in our opinion, and we know most of you will agree, the Crusaders could never be beaten by those teams; in fact, they could beat USC or UCLA.

Just look at the players they have: Ralph Leech; it's been said he has the best jump shot in the nation, and watching him play, I believe it. Bob Hopkins; probably the best basketball coach the Crusaders have ever had. He is a terrific player, and scores an average of about 20 points a game. John Davis; the second top scorer next to Hopkins. His favorite play, or what he's famous for, is this: When he is dribbling under the backboard for a lay-in, he looks right in the opponents eyes, and shoots, never looking at the basket. Then there's the great ball-hawk of the team, Ted Cummins. How can anybody beat a team like that? Nobody can, yet.

As far as we know, there is only one Sierra Madreen at Pasadena Nazarene. His name is Ray Cheroske, an employee here at the News. If there's somebody else, please let us know.

Baseball took a bow with representatives of both local clubs reporting on the opening of practice sessions.

George Goodale of Los Angeles said the Angels will open spring training at Fullerton, Feb. 23, and play the first of a 20-game exhibition slate at Wrigley Field, Mar. 7, against the rough and tough St. Louis Browns.

Bill Rivera, representing the managerless Hollywood Stars, said the Twinkys will open spring drills at Anaheim Mar. 1, and play their first exhibition at Gilmore Field, Mar. 8, against the Tokyo Giants, a Japanese team brought to this country by Lefty O'Doul.

Jr. High track season gets under way today at 3:15 with Marshall hosting Wilson. Leading Marshall's team will be Henry Aguilar, former Sierra Madreen.

LOS ANGELES — News for car owners comes from the Calnevar company here in the form of wire wheel hub caps that accurately simulate $700-per-set wire wheels featured on Detroit European models. The stainless steel beauties were examined by Actress Elena Verdugo — a beauty herself — cost about $100. They have a dual purpose in that they admit air to cool the brake drums. It was the Calnevar company which created the chrome ripple wheel — a decade ago that led to virtually every auto manufacturer copying the style.

Girl Scout Notes

The Girl Scout Court of Awards was held Feb. 9 at the Sierra Madre City School Auditorium. After the Flag ceremony, Mrs. John Hildner, president of the Girl Scout Council of Sierra Madre, introduced Mrs. Martyn Rountree and Mrs. Elva Reavis of Troop 16, which is the new troop of Intermediate Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Martha Neel Arnold and Mrs. Marge Peterson's Troop 13 with Linda Black, Donna Broomfield, Betsy Burghardt, Diane Dammeyer, Linette Holt, Mercedes McGowan, Sonia Lindquist, Jean McKesson, Muriel Peterson, Rosemarie Springate, Judy Ware, Eleanor White. The new Intermediate Girl Scouts of Troop 16 are Carol Bates, Carol Calvin, Carol Glasier, Janet Dickson, Janet Dewar, Virginia Davis, Cynthia Ellet, Diana Del Valle, Lynn Mazarro, Lynn Moffett, Lois Shockley, Kathleen McKesson, Judy Young, Linda Reavis, Sharyn Rountree, Mary Marsh, Bonnie Long, Polly LaLone, Laurene Lauchlan.

When Mariner Troop 3 held their investiture service, Skipper Mrs. Norma Lauder received her pin from First Mate Mrs. Neota Meyer, Chief Bo'sun Faith Guthrie conducted the service and pins were presented to the following new crew members: Franklyn Bradshaw, Patricia Hawkins, Sally Hooker, Sally Lauder, Carolyn McBride, JoAnn Podliska, Lee Meyer, Sharron Dorn, Sharon Rickman and Lynn Voges. The service closed with the singing of Mariner's Taps.

Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

The News was visited recently by Brownie Troop 19, consisting of nine girls from St. Rita School and nine from Ascension Parish School. They were accompanied by Mrs. Inez Burton, leader; Mrs. Rae Marchine, assistant leader, and two mothers, Mrs. Lena Wright and Mrs. Audrey Volmert.

The girls had expressed a desire to "see how a newspaper works," and were especially impressed by the linotype machine that produced the type while they watched.

Mothers of Brownie Troop 22 were sporting unique bright corsages last week, made for them as Valentine gifts by their Brownie daughters. The corsages are cleverly contrived candy heart flowers with bright red ribbon leaves and stems. Helping the girls were their leaders, Mrs. Williams Herrold and Mrs. James Winslow.

Biography of Jan Christian Smuts Available at Library

By Isabel Stradley

The Sierra Madre library now has the first complete biography of Jan Christian Smuts, written by his son, J. C. Smuts, with insight and affection. Mr. Smuts states in a foreword that someday a more complete biography of his father will be written. That many of the private papers are still secret and that much of what was done in his father's lifetime has yet to be completed. But there is probably more in the book of Jan Christian Smut's private life than had it been done by an outsider.

To say of Jan Christian Smuts that he was a philosopher, a scientist, a military leader, is to tell only half the story. He was one of the great men of our time, and probably he did more to help struggling and blundering humanity than any other man in any country of the world during his time.

His career as an international statesman alone would fill a book, not to speak of his work in the high councils of two World Wars. His service to his own country—the guerrilla fighter of the Boer War, the drafter of the South African constitution, the helmsman of the new nation—there were many years when Jan Christian Smuts was South Africa!

But set these and many other things down about him and only the half has been told.

The book does not attempt a deep discussion of the tense political situation in Africa save to draw a distinction between Jan Christian Smuts, the man of wide tolerance, of high vision—and Dr. Malan, the man of narrow nationalism, at present in power.

Other new books at the library are: Non-fiction: Morality in American Politics, Graham; Cross and the Crown, Beasley; Educating Gifted Children, Hildreth; Man the Chemical Machine, Borek; Television and FM Antenna Guide, Noll; Best Reception in Fringe and Low Signal Areas, Smith; Salesmanship, Small; Let's Go Boating, Zarchy; Mrs. McThing (drama), Chase; As They Appear, Brown; Last Resorts, Amory; Amazing Amazon, Price; Abraham Lincoln, Thomas; Always the Young Strangers, Sandburg; American Record in the Far East, Latourette; Bill Mauldin in Korea, Mauldin.

Fiction: Mrs. Hulet, Bloch; Magic Lantern, Carson; Yorktown, Davis; Devil's Bridge, Deasy; Shiloh, Foote; Shipwrecked, Greene; Saturday Night is My Delight, Hood; Blood Royal, Payne; Sojourner, Rawlings; Desiree, Selinko.

Boy Scout News

Wednesday, Feb. 4, one of the outstanding events of the year for Scout troops sponsored by the Congregational Church took place at a dinner at which Scouts and their families were the guests of honor. There were over 200 present.

After the dinner some fine first-aid skills were put on by Troop 3 under the leadership of Scoutmaster George Black. Then Troop 1 under the leadership of Scoutmaster William Galloway presented a surprise to former Scoutmaster Lewis McClelland. He was presented with a Scoutmaster ring.

The new Explorer Post 31 recently organized and also sponsored by the Congregational Church, was given its new charter. Herman Ohs is Post advisor and is very proud of his new outfit and the attractive new uniforms. Rev. Carl Smith extended a welcome to these three units and congratulations for their splendid work in the church and community.

Sunday, Feb. 8, the three units were again on hand at the Congregational Church to participate in Boy Scout Sunday services at 11 a.m. The American flags, church flag and troop flags were carried in by Scouts of Troops 1 and 3. Explorer Scouts acted as ushers and the reading of the scripture was by Explorer Scout Bob Nelson.

Cub Scouts, Explorers and Boy Scouts from other units in town also participated.

Rev. Carl Smith preached a sermon in which he called upon youth to put first things first in life, and said this could be done by following the 12 Scout laws.

Among those participating in the service were Scout Executive Lee Harbottle of San Gabriel Valley Council, and R. G. Barret of the Mt. Wilson District of which Sierra Madre is a part.

Supervisor Raymond V. Darby said that under this program, approximately 30 respirator cases may be taken home. Medical care will be provided through the Rancho Los Angeles, while Visiting Nurse Association will supply personnel for nursing supervision. Physical therapy and equipment, together with electrician and repair services, will be provided by the county.

The family of the patient will be responsible for food, drugs, medicines, clothing and such necessities.

Phillips Announces Giuntini Promotion

Continuing with the growth of Southern California, the growth of Omart Investment Company, Ltd., and its 20 affiliated companies, President M. Penn Phillips, 200 Olivera Lane, announces several changes in the organization of its key personnel.

The most important advancement has been that of promoting Carlo Giuntini to the position of executive vice-president in charge of the entire management and operation.

Giuntini has been a resident of Southern California for the last 14 years, and resides in Arcadia.

He is a charter member of the Kiwanis Club and has taken active part in many community activities.

Lion Excites Many As It Prowls Ranch

The Butteane family, 3535 Landfair road, have had their share of wild animals in their yard. It seems that they had been bothered with a gopher, a skunk and an opossum. Then the Hastings Ranch mountain lion threatened to pay them a visit.

The Butteanes were preparing to leave for Palm Springs at 7 a.m. of a Saturday morning when their attention was drawn to an animal pacing about on the Field School grounds directly behind their home. It was the now-become-famous Hastings lion. Later, after it had crawled over the fence on the west side and had run through the yards there with Mr. Butteane and the police in pursuit, Mrs. Butteane says she saw a smaller lion, possibly a cub, run through theirs and the neighbor's yards. The police looked in shrubs in these yards, but all they could find were the tracks of the smaller animal in the flower beds.

Meanwhile, Gary Murphy, son of the Jack Murphys on Hampton road, was lying in bed listening to police calls on his radio when he heard a call for the men to report to Landfair road where a mountain lion was on the prowl. Gary and his father hurried up to that part of the ranch and joined the neighbors in the exciting hunt for the beasts.

To date the lions still roam and the Butteanes wonder what animal from the wilderness their yard will attract next.

AREA OWNERS

er adjoining sections as the need and interest arose in this industrial district.

Numerous other points were discussed—the resulting increase in traffic, both private and commercial, the devaluation of residential property adjacent to an industrial area, and nuisance factors in an industrial section.

At the close of the meeting, plans were made to acquaint residents of this section of Pasadena with the arguments against such a proposal, to circulate petitions for signatures of those opposing the request, and to hold an open meeting of all residents in the near future for further discussion of the matter. Mr. Meserve emphasized the importance of correspondence in such a matter, and suggested that residents write letters immediately to the Pasadena City Planning Commission voicing their protests.

The meeting was attended by 30 members of the following organizations: Madre Oaks Property Association, Sierra Madre Villa Association, Foothill-Villa Property Owners Organization, Northeast Pasadena Property Owners Organization, and Hastings Ranch Property Owners Organization.

P-TA FOUNDERS

From page one—Membership is accompanied by a $25 contribution to a national scholarship fund which helps to defray expenses of school teachers who need financial assistance in finishing their education.

Other Sierra Madreans who have been awarded P-TA Life Memberships in recent years are Marcus Woodward, Charles Skutt, E. Waldo Ward and Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

Another feature of the Founders Day luncheon will be the presentation of a check as P-TA's contribution to the Sierra Madre swimming pool fund, to be accepted by Ralph "Pappy" Welch, representing the Sierra Madre Swimming Pool Association.

Fashions will be modeled by mothers and children, and music will be provided by upper grade students.

CONTRACT

Both combustible rubbish, meaning leaves, tree sections, and other vegetation cuttings, and non-combustible rubbish, meaning glass, tin cans, crockery and such, are on the once-a-week schedule—with limitations.

Said limitations will be described in detail in forthcoming information by the city, but so far as quantities and sizes are concerned they are principally as follows:

Garbage, collected twice a week and listed as residential or commercial, shall be from containers having a capacity of not less than three gallons or more than 16 gallons;

Combustible rubbish, residential, shall be placed in substantial containers which shall have a capacity of not greater than one cubic yard, and which shall not contain any such materials in excess of 50 pounds in weight; branches and tree trimmings shall be baled in lengths of no more than four feet and such bales shall weigh under 50 pounds; suitable containers shall be furnished providing the tenant or owner requests such containers, with the charge for said containers collected by the contractor from the tenant or owner;

Non-combustible rubbish, residential and commercial, shall be placed in substantial containers which shall have a total capacity not greater than two and one-half cubic feet and shall not contain any such materials in excess of 100 pounds weight.

In homes where yard rubbish overflows the weekly limitations, arrangements may be made with Avedesian for individual contracts.

A report of his more detailed address at the Field School meeting is as follows.

"Other schools have been waiting longer for facilities," he explained, adding, "but if the need here proves greater than needs elsewhere, they will be filled."

The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint voters with facts regarding the March 4 bond election. Dr. McComb told his audience, in effect, that he could understand their disappointment in the final decision on the junior high school but that, knowing their interest in good education, he felt they would be supporting education in general by supporting and voting for the bonds.

Propositions 1, 2, and 3 total $15,610,000. Sierra Madre taxpayers will vote on Prop. 1 and 2, and Prop. A. All speakers emphasized that this comprises only the bare necessities for Pasadena schools.

"Propositions 1, 2 and 3, must pass," stated Dr. McComb. "Prop. A, regarding conversion of the system from 6-4-4 to 6-3-3-2, is a matter of opinion."

Dr. McComb read several points which indicated either system would provide good education. "Passage of the bond issue would mean a cost of 3 and 1/2 cents per day to the owner of a home with a $10,000 market value," Dr. Marsee pointed out with the aid of illustrations on a flannel board.

"The thousands of chemists, physicists, medical and pharmaceutical research workers dedicated to discovering new and better methods of saving lives are a part of this battle."

of an orphanage five kilometers behind the front line during the Italian campaign. It was set up in a schoolhouse to accommodate 50 children whose parents had been burned alive before their eyes during the retreat of the Nazis.

Through Red Cross Mrs. Potter was able to obtain soap, medication, beds, clothing and food for them.

Mrs. Leo H. Meyer announced at the close of the meeting that the opening day rally for the campaign fund will be held Monday morning, March 2, at the Woman's Clubhouse. All district captains and their workers are asked to attend.

New Musicians To Meet With Band Tonight

The Sierra Madre Community Band added two more musicians at its second rehearsal last Thursday evening, and it is hoped that other new members will present themselves tonight for the third rehearsal at City School auditorium from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

Local musicians registered are Hank Hinshaw and Bob Brogger, trombones; Vella Cheroske and Rene Thorne, saxophone; Bill Bowling, trumpet; and Jenne La Salle, clarinet. The Recreation Commission organized the band as a community service, and the entire San Gabriel Valley is well-represented. Recent experience is not necessary. A few instruments are available for use during the weekly rehearsals, held every Thursday at the school.

Other localities represented in the band are Temple City, Monrovia, Arcadia, Baldwin Park and South San Gabriel. Persons from all communities within the vicinity of Sierra Madre are welcome.
